

Horizon Elementary School

In February of 2017 Bol Aweng, one of the Lost Boys of Sudan, spoke to the students at Horizon Elementary School. Guidance counselor, Beth Watts, made the arrangements. Bol shared his story of fleeing the civil war in Sudan when he was six years old and how after spending 14 years in refugee camps, Bol was relocated to the United States. He has built a clinic in his homeland to help provide maternal and child health care.

These girls were so touched by Bol's story that they did a fundraiser to raise money for his clinic. Bol was very surprised and delighted when they presented him with a check for over one thousand dollars.
