

Move over Dr. Seuss... Sells' hats ROCK!

Thank you, Sells!

As a way to raise funds for the Buckeye Clinic in South Sudan, Sells came up with the creative idea of having students pay a dollar for the privilege to wear a hat to school today. Obviously the students LOVED the idea. By the time Bol left, they had raised over $200. Way to go DUBLIN SELLS!

"Will you sign my hat?"
